

ALBERTA THEATRE PROJECTS

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS – ALBERTA PLAYWRIGHTS Enbridge Playwrights Awards at Alberta Theatre Projects DEADLINE – March 10, 2017

Alberta Theatre Projects welcomes applications from Alberta-based playwrights and theatre creators of all backgrounds and experience for the Enbridge Playwrights Awards. Awards of $3,000 each will be presented to one emerging and one established playwright, fostering the research, creation and development of a new play and nurturing Canadian playwriting talent.

To celebrate and support playwrights living and working in Alberta, this year our Awards will only be open to playwrights with a home address in this province.

EMERGING PLAYWRIGHTS:

The Enbridge Playwrights Award for an Emerging Canadian Playwright may be used to support the following expenses related to the development of a play:

- Engage dramaturgical expertise (travel costs, artist fees, etc.)
- Undertake a workshop (facility rental, artist fees, etc.)
- Convene a public reading (facility rental, artist fees, administrative costs, etc.)

ESTABLISHED PLAYWRIGHTS:

The Enbridge Playwrights Award for an Established Canadian Playwright may be used for the following expenses:

- Financial support to complete a draft of your play (subsistence, child care, etc.)
- Engage dramaturgical expertise (travel costs, artist fees, etc.)
- Undertake a workshop (facility rental, artist fees, etc.)
- Convene a public reading (facility rental, artist fees, administrative costs, etc.)

Applicants to the Enbridge Playwrights Award for an Established Canadian Playwright must have had at least one play produced by a member of the Professional Association of Canadian Theatres (PACT). Please note the name of this theatre on your application.

ALL APPLICATIONS SHOULD INCLUDE:

- Your address in Alberta
- a short synopsis of your play and a writing sample of 2-3 page (please do not include a full draft)
- a brief description of your play development process, your goals and schedule
- a simple budget that outlines how the $3,000 Award funds will be used
- your current curriculum vitae
- if you are applying as an Emerging or Established Playwright

ALBERTA THEATRE PROJECTS

Please note that full productions of new plays are not considered eligible projects for this Award. All activities (such as workshops, readings, etc.) must be completed within 2 years of receiving this Award. This Award is open to all Alberta-based playwrights, who may be Canadian citizens, permanent residents, refugees, or landed immigrants living in Alberta.

Recipients will be announced at Alberta Theatre Projects in Calgary on April 6, 2017 – opening night of 1979 by Michael Healey, an Enbridge New Canadian Play.

Deadline for all submissions is March 10, 2017

Please email all materials to ATP's Artistic Associate Laurel Green lgreen@ATPlive.com

To learn more about the Award and past recipients please visit:
<http://atplive.com/who-we-are/call-for-submissions-enbridge-playwrights-awards/>

Alberta Theatre Projects is a national leader in play development and dramaturgy, creating and producing world premiere productions through our Enbridge New Canadian Plays program. The creation and production of new Canadian plays is at the core of what we do, and we believe that it is vitally important to our community. By sharing new stories and new perspectives from artists right here at home we feed our curiosity and engage passionately with the times we live in, and with each other. For more information about our programming please visit ATPlive.com

Enbridge Inc. is a Canadian company, exists to fuel people's quality of life, and has done so for more than 65 years. A North American leader in delivering energy, Enbridge has been ranked on the Global 100 Most Sustainable Corporations index for the past seven years. Enbridge operates the world's longest crude oil and liquids transportation system across Canada and the U.S., and has a significant and growing involvement in natural gas gathering, transmission and midstream business, as well as an increasing involvement in power transmission. Enbridge owns and operates Canada's largest natural gas distribution company, serving residential, commercial, and industrial customers in Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick and New York State. Enbridge has interests in more than 2,200 megawatts of net renewable and alternative generating capacity, and continues to expand into wind, solar and geothermal power. Enbridge employs approximately 10,000 people, primarily in Canada and the U.S., and has been ranked 15 times on the annual Canada's Top Employers list, including the 2017 index.

Enbridge's common shares trade on the Toronto and New York stock exchanges under the symbol ENB. For more information, visit www.enbridge.com.