

ALBERTA THEATRE PROJECTS

Want to be a playwright? We have the perfect opportunity for you:
FRESH PRINTS Student Writers Group

The FRESH PRINTS Student Writers Group at Alberta Theatre Projects is a unique opportunity for high school students to explore the craft of playwriting with professional playwrights and guest artists from across Canada.

WHEN: September 12, 2016 – March 6, 2017

The group meets every Monday evening from 7pm-9pm

WHERE: The ATP Boardroom in Arts Commons (Stage Door, 220 9th Ave S.E.)

WHO: The group is open to students in grades 9-12 and students can participate multiple years in a row to continue honing their skills.

COST: $100 per student. If the cost is a barrier, there are many options that ATP offers, so please speak to Talore if this is the only thing keeping you from registering.

WHAT YOU'LL COVER: During this five month program, a select group of students will have the chance to be mentored in playwriting by professional playwright Neil Fleming, guest directors and dramaturgs, as well as visiting playwrights from across Canada. Members are also invited behind the scenes to rehearsals and other professional theatre events.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT: The course will culminate with a presentation called FRESH PRINTS on March 4, 2017, where the work students have developed is directed and performed by professional actors. The event is hosted at Lunchbox Theatre (base of the Calgary Tower) and is by donation at the door.
