Description: Have a CHS Humane Educator join your class for a presentation on compassion, empathy and respect for all living things. In this hour long presentation we will explore the wonderful world of our companion animals, and discuss our role in providing the care and protection they need. Students will discover the connections between respect for both humans and animals with an interactive activity, and identify the importance of being a leader in ending animal cruelty and related cycles of violence. This interactive empathy building program is the perfect addition to your Charlotte's Web studies!

Established in 1922, Calgary Humane Society is Calgary's first animal welfare organization, helping approximately 8,000 animals annually through sheltering, adoption, education and cruelty investigation!
